Do you offer debt management advice?

Unfortunately, the Money@CampusLife Office does not have sufficient resources to be able to provide complete debt management plans for students. However, advisors at Money@CampusLife are fully trained and experienced and will always point you in the right direction. Whether you feel able to tackle your debt issues or would like the help of an expert, Money@CampusLife can recommend a number of debt advice providers who can provide free and confidential advice and support.

Please contact us as soon as you anticipate a problem arising so that we can provide timely advice to prevent matters deteriorating. Depending on a student's circumstances Money@CampusLife tend to refer students to the Citizen's Advice Bureau, National Debtline or Stepchange.
