Where can I obtain some information about any Welfare Benefits I may be entitled to?

As a general rule, students are not entitled to any state benefits. However, there are some circumstances where you may be entitled to some additional benefit income e.g. if you have a dependent child or have a disability. Benefit regulations can be complicated and entitlement will depend on each applicant's individual circumstances. Further information and advice can be obtained from Money@CampusLife or the Citizens Advice Bureau and your local Job Centre Plus office. Alternatively, have a look at the free benefits checker available at turn2us: <https://www.turn2us.org.uk/Find-Benefits-Grants>
