

Undergraduate - After You Apply

I was unwell before or during my A/AS Level examinations. Will this be taken into account?

You should ask your school or college to write to the Admissions Office to let us know about any issue (ill health or teaching-related) that might affect your studies or examinations. This information will be attached to your application and taken into consideration, should you not meet the terms of your offer once the examination results are published.

Unique solution ID: #1719

Author: UG Admissions

Last update: 2016-06-24 12:57